

Introduction to Computers (Level 1)

An introduction to the world of computers and their basic functions. Students will learn how to use simple applications and complete little tasks.

In this course, students will learn the basic functions of a computer, including what a computer is, what Windows is, how to correctly turn on and turn off the computer, how to control and use the mouse and the keyboard, basic computer word processing, computer games, and simple windows applications.