

In-depth use of Search Engines (Level 3C)

In this course, students will learn the in-depth functions of search engines, including what is search engine and searching for different websites using search engines.

Search engine features, like map, driving direction, news, and a lot of. This is a must have for all Internet users.