

File Downloading and Safety Precautions (Level 4E)

In this course, students will learn what is Peer-to-Peer downloading, various software required for it and its basic functions. We will also teach you the correct usage of security measures required for downloading from the internet, including Anti-virus and Anti-spyware.

